I. Statement of the Facts

A Notice of Allowance was mailed on June 25, 2007 for U.S. Patent Application No. 10/057,629 (hereinafter the '629 Application). The accompanying Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. §154(b) specifies that the patent term adjustment is 612 days, subject to any disclaimer.

A. Correct Patent Term Adjustment

Applicants respectfully request that this determination of the patent term adjustment be reconsidered and revised. Applicants have analyzed the prosecution history of the '629 Application and respectfully assert that the correct patent term adjustment should be 921 days, not 612 days.

To facilitate review of the patent term adjustment, Applicants have attached a copy of a printout of a computerized summary of the prosecution history of the '629 Application compiled using the Patent Term Online software as Exhibit A. Exhibit A is a list of events that occurred during the prosecution of the '629 Application.

Also, Applicants have attached (as Exhibit B) a copy of an annotated printout of each of the prosecution history events listed in Exhibit A. Exhibit B sets forth the date and name of each event, a convenient summary of the U.S. Patent Office rule under which the significance of the event was analyzed with respect to patent term adjustment ("Rule Invoked"), and the date and name of the subsequent related event which concludes the analysis under the pertinent rule ("Related Event"). This analysis was conducted using the Patent Term Online software.

For convenience in the discussion to follow, Applicants have attached (as Exhibit C) a copy of an AIPA Term Calculation Report which provides a summary of the patent term adjustment analysis and sets forth the relevant events of the prosecution history and analysis of each relevant event with respect to excluded days, debit days and credit days. The AIPA Term Calculation Calendar (attached as Exhibit D) provides a day-by-day review of the relevant events included in Exhibit C. The U.S. Patent Office's Patent Term Adjustment History is attached as Exhibit E for convenience.

II. Analysis

Applicants will now discuss and analyze each of the pertinent events of the prosecution history to show the basis for Applicants' assertion that the correct patent term adjustment should be 921 days, making reference to Exhibit C. For events in which Applicants' determination agrees with the U.S. Patent Office determination, reference is made to Exhibit C and further detailed discussion is omitted.

A. Bases Under §§1.702 and 1.703 for Adjustment

The '629 Application was filed on January 25, 2002. See Exhibit C, page 2. The projected issue date of the application is January 1, 2008 (the Tuesday before the date that is 28 weeks after the mailing date of the Notice of Determination of Patent Term Adjustment (June 25, 2007)). See Exhibit C, page 2. Under 37 C.F.R. §1.702(b), the U.S. Patent Office must issue a patent within three years after the filing date of the application. The period of adjustment under 37 C.F.R. §1.703(b) is the number of days in the period beginning on the day after the date that is three years after the date on which the application was filed and ending on the date that the application is projected to issue (total 409 days). To the extent that periods of delay attributable to the grounds specified in §1.702 overlap, the period of adjustment shall not exceed the actual number of days that the issuance of the patent was delayed. There were 99 days credited for adjustment under 37 C.F.R. §1.702(a)(1), which is the number of days in the period beginning on the day after the date that is fourteen months after the date on which the application was filed and ending on the date of the mailing of the Restriction Requirement dated July 2, 2003. Thus, the actual delay was 409 days minus 99 days, which equals 310 days. See Exhibit C, pages 2 and 7-8.

Request for Reconsideration of Patent Term Adjustment
Under 37 C.F.R. §1.705(d)
U.S. Patent Application No. 10/057,629
Paper Dated: August 30, 2007
Attorney Docket No. CV01382K US (4686-045584)

B. Bases Under §1.704 for Adjustment

On May 10, 2005, Applicants filed an Information Disclosure Statement. See Exhibit C, page 6. The Information Disclosure Statement was not expressly requested by the Examiner and was filed after the Notice of Appeal filed on May 9, 2005. Under 37 C.F.R. §1.704(c)(8), Applicants' period of adjustment (credits) is reduced for the period beginning on the day after the date that the initial reply was filed (May 9, 2005) and ending on the date that the Information Disclosure Statement was filed (May 10, 2005). Thus, Applicants' period of adjustment (credits) is reduced by one (1) day for this event.

C. Terminal Disclaimer

The '629 Application is not subject to any terminal disclaimer.

III. Period of adjustment determined according to 37 C.F.R. §1.703(f)

According to 37 C.F.R. §1.703(f), the period of adjustment shall be the sum of the periods calculated under 37 C.F.R. §1.703(a) through (e), to the extent that such periods are not overlapping, less the sum of the periods calculated under 37 C.F.R. §1.704. The sum of the periods calculated under 37 C.F.R. §1.703(a) through (e) is equal to 1071 days. The sum of the periods calculated under 37 C.F.R. §1.704 is equal to 150 days. The net patent term adjustment under 37 C.F.R. §1.703(f) is equal to 1071 days minus 150 days, i.e., 921 days.

Request for Reconsideration of Patent Term Adjustment
Under 37 C.F.R. §1.705(d)
U.S. Patent Application No. 10/057,629
Paper Dated: August 30, 2007
Attorney Docket No. CV01382K US (4686-045584)

Accordingly, Applicants respectfully request that the patent term adjustment be reconsidered and corrected to be 921 days.

Respectfully submitted,

(3) Calculations of Debit, Credit, and Exclusion Days are determined by the rule assignments, assignments of related events, and analysis options in the Apply Term Rules tab. The patent professional using this system is responsible for reviewing and updating the Apply Term Rules tab to ensure all data is complete, correct, and consistent with their judgment and interpretation of applicable legal authority.
(4) Exclusion Days are periods which are not included in determining the end of the 3-year period after the date on which the application was filed under 35 USC 111(a), or the national stage commenced under 35 USC 371(b) or (f) in an international application, used to determine credits under the 3-Year PTO Issue of Patent rule. (5) Debit Days are days where grounds for reduction of period of adjustment of patent term exist. See, e.g., 37 CFR 1.704. Debit Days are sometimes referred to as Applicant Delay.
(6) Credit Days are days where grounds for adjustment of patent term exist. See, e.g., 37 CFR 1.702, 1.703. Credit Days are sometimes referred to as USPTO Delay.
(7) To the extent credit periods overlap other credit periods, debit periods overlap other debit periods, or exclusion periods overlap other exclusion periods, overlaps are subtracted so that each calendar day generates at most one credit day, one debit day, and one exclusion day.
(8) Patent Term Adjustment Days equals Net Credit Days minus Net Debit Days, but is not less than zero.
